

Residents in parts of Accra, Tema and Central Region should prepare for temporary outages as ECG undertakes maintenance works.

At the forefront of electrification is the Greater Accra region, boasting a near-universal access rate of 99.3%. This statistic not only reflects the region's economic vitality but also its ...

This dataset, generated between 2018 and July 2024, provides unprecedented insights into the quality and reliability of electricity across 14 districts in Accra.

Exasperated Ghanaians already grappling with frequent, unplanned power outages are steeling themselves for more misery after electricity distributors announced increased disruption to ...

ACEP's electricity monitor offers valuable data on Ghana's power sector and invites electric power consumers to report issues in their access to power, meter challenges, electricity tariffs, service ...

Between 2020 and 2025, electricity consumption in Accra rose sharply due to urban expansion, widespread use of appliances, and growing commercial activities. The shift to remote ...

Join us as we delve into the multifaceted dimensions of power in Accra, exploring its electrifying energy, political significance, economic prowess, cultural vibrancy, and social dynamics."

The west African nation is experiencing power rationing and electricity cuts. It has lost 10% of its total electricity generation capacity.

Accra Power Outage schedule for today and tomorrow. Find out about planned and emergency power cuts in your area.

Connect to our online Tv for electricity related updates, planned outages and news. We provide consulting services and specialized training in various electrical engineering designs, safety, testing ...

Web: <https://www.capturedmoments.co.za>