

SMUD rolled out new time-of-day rates to customers in the Sacramento area. Here's how they work and the times you will pay the most to use electricity.

As of 2025, SMUD's residential electricity rates vary seasonally and according to different pricing plans: The Time-of-Day (TOD) rate is the standard rate for residential customers. This plan ...

On the Time-of-Day (5 pm - 8 pm) Rate, you pay different rates for electricity based on the season and the time of day that you use it. Summer: From June 1 through September 30, there are three time ...

SMUD's "time-of-day" rates change twice a year, once in October and again in June. Regardless of the time of year, it will cost you more money to flip the switch during the three-hour...

On the Time-of-Day (Low Use) Rate, you pay different rates for electricity based on the season and the time of day that you use it. The charts below show the time periods and rates for the non-summer ...

On the Time-of-Day (5-8 p.m.) Rate, you pay different rates for electricity based on the season and the time of day that you use it. The charts below show the time periods and rates for the non-summer ...

With our Time-of-Day Rate, you can save money by shifting when you use electricity to off-peak times. You can save on your SMUD bill by reducing your electricity use between 5 p.m. and 8 ...

Basically, the Time-of-Day rates mean customers pay for electricity at a different rate depending on what time of day it's being used.

The Time-of-Day Cost Estimator calculates the estimated daily cost of household items on our Time-of-Day Rate. Get started today and find out how to save.

Compare the cost of using common household items at different time periods throughout the day. Explore our Energy Efficiency Home to find energy savings tips to fit your schedule and lifestyle.

Web: <https://www.capturedmoments.co.za>