

So in this briefing note we take a closer look at the case for installing more solar panels, discuss progress so far, and consider what, if any, policy might be needed to maximise the benefits.

Following the election in July, Government announced its plans for a "solar rooftop revolution". A large part of delivering this would be through the Future Homes Standard including solar on new homes, ...

Each quarter, the National Renewable Energy Laboratory conducts the Quarterly Solar Industry Update, a presentation of technical trends within the solar industry.

The Productivity Commission is urging the government to progress work on a national product stewardship scheme for solar panels and investigate a similar scheme for electric vehicle ...

China's exports of solar panels to the global south have doubled in the past two years, overtaking global-north sales for the first time since 2018, says a recent Carbon Brief guest post.

Briefing Global solar power installations surged to a record nearly 600 gigawatts (GW) in 2024, a massive 33% increase over the previous year, fundamentally reshaping the global power ...

During a January 29 virtual press briefing, supporters of the bill, SB 868, explained how it would expand access to safe, plug-in solar systems, also known as "balcony solar." If enacted, the ...

Solar cell manufacturing in the EU has grown 0.6 GW from 2022, with 7 active companies in this segment. There are 57 active module manufacturers in the EU. The EU recently adopted a ban on ...

Solar power Solar and wind power has grown faster than electricity demand this year, report says A new analysis of solar and wind power shows its generation worldwide has outpaced electricity demand ...

This EBOT explores the global state of solar panel recycling and end-of-life opportunities for these products, with a focus on U.S. capabilities and policies that incentivize recycling.

Web: <https://www.capturedmoments.co.za>