

The latest news on Saint Lucia's new energy storage policy

As Saint Lucia pushes to reduce its reliance on imported fossil fuels, the government faces a delicate balancing act.

This action immediately forces a regulatory overhaul in the energy sector, directly impacting the vital hospitality and tourism industry, which is now demanding that new legislation ...

The Alliance for Green Innovation and Technology has published a document which it says fact checks "some myths shaping Saint Lucia's energy laws". AGIT is concerned that LUCELEC may have ...

In a significant move toward energy independence and climate resilience, Saint Lucia is preparing to launch its second industrial-scale solar project--a 10 MW photovoltaic installation paired ...

Saint Lucia is proud to be the first in the Caribbean to submit its NDC 3.0, well in advance of the UNFCCC deadline of February 10, 2025, further affirming its leadership role in the Caribbean's ...

Electric utility company St Lucia Electricity Services is set to tender a 10 MW solar project with accompanying battery energy storage later this year.

Saint Lucia is preparing to launch a call for proposals for a 10 MW solar project coupled with a 13 MW battery energy storage system. The project, which will be strategically located at the ...

The Saint Lucia Hospitality and Tourism Association (SLHTA) has welcomed Government's efforts to reform the island's energy sector through the proposed Electricity Act (2024) ...

This move underscores the country's commitment to addressing the global climate crisis and reinforces its position as a regional leader in climate policy development. This is a significant ...

The latest news on Saint Lucia s new energy storage policy

Web: <https://www.capturedmoments.co.za>